DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (If known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

Now used as private residences, this large frame building was once a commercial block comprising two or three stores. The building is probably two smaller structures joined together some years ago. The larger (northerly) portion of this block has a false front at attic level adding to the appearance of a country town commercial building. There are scroll brackets supporting the cornice on this false front and the smaller cornice over the main store front.
